Aquarius aren't nonjudgmental they're secretly critical assholes...

who don't want you to know what they're thinking so they let you do all the talking while they form opinions in their mind and never tell you. That way you can never say you knew them or that they insulted you. They just disappear or stick around and that's how you know if they "approve" of your behavior or not. Never open to discussing it but always open to listening to you reveal more.
