

Astrology / Lilith conjunction /Sextile/ trine [Planet]

(Light energy)
This energy is lighter and easier to understand for both parties. Both can see it and decide to move on or what.
The Planet native will run from Lilith; Even though they seem compatible, the planet would see Lilith as shameless but attractive. One has control over the other, but it's a trap. The planet person will reveal his true self to Lilith, but they will not accept Lilith for fear. The challenge is to accept both are equals, not rivals. Also, the sexual energy is there, but the man wants to dominate Lilith.
For a man: his Lilith means he would see her as “his type” but find her as an equal and rival, which is the trigger. Does she is the same as me? No, I’m better than her. He knows he can control her but at what cost.
For a woman: she would see him (his Lilith) as a perfect partner for expressing her deepest desires, but she knows he would bound her. She knows he can hurt her; she is vulnerable in front of him and likes him too much, which is her weakness.
How to deal with it: Being adults and accepting that both have issues, yet they can make it. By using communication and understanding that both are humans. Vulnerability is okay.
Themes: vulnerability, pain, ego drive, mirroring, past traumas, competition, patience, and healing
