

Astrology / Malefic being...

Day		Night
☉	Leader	☾
♂	Benefic	♀
♄	Malefic	♂
♊	Neutral	♊

This helps to determine which planets

Malefic being...

causing or capable of causing harm or destruction, especially by supernatural means

Find the sign your malefic planet is in. Those people will lead to supernatural destruction on your life.

“What about Mercury? Mercury’s sect is determined by whether it rises before or after the Sun, when Mercury rises before the Sun in the natal chart, it is Diurnal and happier in a Diurnal chart. When Mercury rises after the Sun in the natal chart it is Nocturnal and prefers to be in a Nocturnal chart and with the Nocturnal planets”

“In a day chart, Mars is the malefic out-of-Sect, potentially causing more difficulties to overcome, whereas Saturn can poses a more constructive challenge— something that is surmountable and lead to growth, particularly post-Saturn return.

In a night chart, Saturn is the malefic out of Sect, and Mars is the malefic of sect (in general, Saturn is known as the greater malefic and mars is the lesser malefic). This means that Saturn can be more challenging for night charts, and can contribute to the experience of the Saturn Return more”

So whereas I have a night chart.

Virgo mars Pisces Saturn

They’re saying generally Saturn will harder

Mars will be constructive

(Think Pisces Virgo... true!!)

Pisces for me when troubles arise are near impossible and detrimental for me. Whereas Virgos are frustrating and piss me off but I can face it with direction/anger expression to let go and move forward and generally learn from that experience. With the Pisces I’ve found there’s nothing to learn other than evil people exist and you should recognize them fast and run the other way regardless of the excuses to stay!!!

Diurnal Planets

- Sun - sect light
- Saturn - malefic of sect
- Jupiter - benefic of sect
- (Mercury if risen before the Sun)
- (Mars is the malefic-out-of-sect and so may pose more challenges)

Nocturnal Planets

- Moon - sect light
- Mars - malefic of sect
- Venus - benefic of sect
- (Mercury if risen after the Sun)
- (Saturn is the malefic-out-of-sect and so may pose more challenges)

"the day Planets are most constructive in a day chart, and the night Planets are most constructive in a night chart."

Entoces, Tu puedes decir:

In my chart moon (Libra) look to leader

Mars (Virgo) challenges to build character or show direction forward

And Venus (Scorpio) when available brings the good stuff you need

Whereas challenging Saturn (Pisces) will bring unproductive challenges or blocks and benefitting Jupiter (Sagittarius) will bring luck and gifts that fall short or have no practical purpose for e

Saturn is actually Feminine. Therefore Day charts exhibit their luck/benefic in the masculine Jupiter energy and their malefic/bad in the feminine energy, whereas Night charts exhibit their luck/benefic in the feminine Venus energy and their malefic/bad in the masculine Mars energy.

(This of course is affected as well by those planet's placements themselves being domicile, detriment, fallen, or exalted)
