

Astrology / Mercury square and opposite (Conjunctions too, but not as bad):

Jupiter-> loose with the truth, into exaggerating, for the reaction, not grounded in reality. Take whatever they say down about three steps to get through truth. They also overestimate their ability to communicate and their level of intelligence.

Neptune-> convince themselves of their own illusions- misdirecting, confusing, the topic changes somehow, hard to follow what their saying, good at implying the truth and dancing around the truth to cover their butt, adding extra info that distracts from the point at hand. They themselves get lost in the communication field sometimes and have to be reminded.

Same aspect but With Lilith: hard not to lie because used to it and it favors them, speak selfishly, trouble seeing others' perspectives, justifying themselves a lot more, itchy they have to scratch to lie and say the thing they shouldn't say, wants to be rebellious, likely to say less and withhold information forever, always tries to get you to talk and reveal,

Pluto: good at detecting lying!! Such good liars, by seeing how others make mistakes lying. They will do anything at any cost to continue a lie and never admit to what the actual truth is. Use as few words as possible. Notice when they are quiet, that is a red flag. Calculating, thinking ten steps ahead. Freaky!
