Virgos another realization. Their values come from what they're told...

So if they're told this hairless cat is worth thousands of dollars, they agree and they value the cat. They believe they are elite and the best because they perceive the "rules" made up by the community and society immediately around them and can navigate/manipulate their way to the top in those circles/dynamics. However this can be full of delusional thinking/ bubble perspectives etc. Virgo(as well as Pisces) benefit greatly from traveling and experiencing a wide variety of socioeconomic lifestyles and various cultures. To then form their unique set of values separate from the approval of only one specific group.
