

Longer Thinking/ Conspiracies/ Babble / Bro □

Of course.... Men are always historically finding ways to go off and be away.
From war to the 40 hour work week to “business trips”

It's insane.

They created an entire society/culture around being gone from their significant others... why? wtf???

If sexual with who?

If not then what are they doing...

Planning... secretly taping

Meeting and making secret decisions

Rule number one they don't talk about it ever never ever mention it to women and we'll never know because they're all in on it.

They decide who goes where and gets with who when. That's why they're all so fucking shady

I'm always wondering if everybody knows what I don't or the men only know and women just couldn't believe this level of conspiracy, but I believe. It's definitely all not what they say it is.
